

REMARKS

The specification has been amended to claim continuing status for this application with regard to the International application upon which it is based.

In accordance with the above amendments, original claims 1-36 have been canceled and replaced by a new slate containing claims 37-64. The claims have been revised without the intent to disclaim any aspect of the present invention or in any way reduce the scope of the invention claimed, but rather to better accommodate the claiming rules of the USPTO.

Applicants also hereby submit a copy of the Sequence Listing in both computer readable and written form. The undersigned hereby states that to the best of his present knowledge and belief the information recorded in computer readable form is identical to the written Sequence Listing.

Early examination and allowance of the present claims is respectfully requested.

Respectfully submitted,
